Trademark Usage

The trademarks of The LYCRA Company are valuable assets that will be vigorously defended against piracy and improper usage that could damage our brands or degrade their value. Please help us protect the integrity of our trademarks by following these simple rules:

- Always use the appropriate trademark symbol as indicated above.
- Always use the proper generic following a trademark. Acceptable generic terms include “fiber”, “technology” and “brand”.
- Trademarks function as an adjective that describe a generic term. Trademarks are not nouns, verbs or adverbs and should never be used in that manner.
- Trademarks should never be used in the possessive or plural form and should never be hyphenated or split, even at the end of a line.
